7. Data retention

1. We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.
2. When we have no ongoing need to process personal data, it will either be deleted or anonymised or, if this is not possible (for example, because the relevant personal data has been stored in backup archives), we will store it securely and isolate it.
3. Your personal data will be anonymised wherever possible, including any feedback that you provide.

8. Cookies

1. We collect this personal data by using cookies, server logs and other similar technologies. Please see our cookie policy here for further details.
2. Apart from the above we also use Google Analytics and Facebook Pixel services for monitoring and assessing traffic at our webpage.

9. Data security

1. We have put in place appropriate technical and organisational security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know.
2. We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

10. Your rights

1. Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:
 - a. Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a 'data subject access request'), to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check it is being lawfully processed;
 - b. Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you – note that you can update your personal data by logging in and going to your profile page;
 - c. Object to processing of your personal data;
 - d. Request erasure of your personal data where there is no good reason for us to continue to process it, or where you have exercised the right to object to processing. Note that once you are logged in there is an option to delete your account at your profile page. We then retain your data for additional time (usually up to two weeks) in case you change your mind. If you require immediate deletion of your data please contact us;
 - e. Request the restriction of processing of your personal data, for example if you want NomadMania to suspend processing of certain data to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it;
 - f. Request the transfer of your personal data to another party; and
 - g. Withdraw your consent (where you have provided this).
2. If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us (see the 'contact us' section below).
3. You have the right to lodge a complaint with a data protection authority about our collection and use of your personal data. For more information, please contact your local data protection authority. Contact details for data protection authorities in the European Economic Area are available here.
